A Symposium on the ‘Revived Bretton Woods System’: A New Paradigm for Asian Development?

Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, Friday February 4, 2005

Sponsors:
Center for Pacific Basin Studies, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and Clausen Center for International Business and Policy, UC Berkeley

Organizers: Reuven Glick (FRBSF), Andrew Rose (UCB), and Mark Spiegel (FRBSF)

Tentative Schedule:

12:00 Buffet Lunch

1:15 Welcome: Janet Yellen (FRBSF)

1:30 Introduction: Michael Dooley (UCSC), Peter Garber (Deutsche Bank)

2:00 Panel 1.
- History: Barry Eichengreen (UCB)
- Current Account Sustainability: Maurice Obstfeld (UCB)
- Reserve Currencies, Center/Anchor Countries: Nouriel Roubini (NYU)

3:30 Coffee Break

4:00 Panel 2.
- Development: Guillermo Calvo (IADB, Maryland)
- China: Nicholas Lardy (IIE)
- Asia ex-China: Steven Kamin (BoG)
- US, Europe: Edwin Truman (IIE)

5:30 Reception

Format:
- Each panelist will be given ten minutes.

Last Updated: December 8, 2004